hree or four days, is more than enough to pay over. Let us see how many will take this view ofit, and make such provision from the gain thus realized? We pause for the responses.

Death of Mr. Samuel Watson. One of the best citizens of Sumter recently assed through the vale that separates us from the spirit land, and has gone to wear his immortal crown of heavenly reward.

We utter no word of compliment, inspired by years of strong personal esteum and love, when re write to his memory "one of Sumter's best tisens." Our departed friend was known of all community in this character, and loved by all, white and black-the large number of color ed people in attendance upon his funeral services attesting the fact that he held a warm place in their affections. Some of these, too, more promigent, followed the hearse to the place of burial. and sought and performed service in the last sad duty and respect discharged by his friends.

MR. WATSON was one of the pillars of the Baptist Church at this place, and had been as a polished shaft in the earthly temple of the Most High for many years. He loved the church and all of her services with a steady and unvarying arder, and in his liberal heart devised generous things in her support. To the donomination to which he belonged, and to our christian community, his death involves a sad loss.

For several years he was one of the leading nors of the enterprising mercantile house of GREEN, WATSON & WALSH, and to his energy and industry and well-directed effort was due much of the large success attained by that house, and the beneficial results according to our town as

His health had been feeble for many years, rendering it necessary for him to seek the invigorating climate and restorative waters of the mountain regions of North and South Carolina. He returned to his home after an absence during the summer months, to die in the bosom of his deeply devoted family, and in the midst of his large circle of sympathizing friends.

We mourn him as a departed friend, but we know that he has gone to a shining seat in the blissful courts of the heavenly Paradise, and we take comfort, while extending to his afflicted amily our deepest sympathies.

Religious. We take pleasure in making announcemen that Bishop T. F. DAVIS, of the Episcopa Church, will hold religious services at the Church of the Holy Comforter, at Sumter, on Sabbath morning next, at the usual hour.

We call attention to the Ordinance in re gard to the sale of Country produce in town after dark. Intendent, Capt. GREEN commenced the seizing of Seed Cotton be the early part of last week and now that traffe has entirely stopped in our town at night. This will be welcome news o our planting friends. Capt. GREEN deserves the thanks of all honest men

Direct from Louisville to Sumter. We learn that Messrs. GREEN & WALSH received, on Monday last, a car load of flour, through direct from Louisville-the first for thi place by the great Western freight line recently

Mr. J. T. Solemons, we also learn, received twenty barrels of flour by the same shipment.

Road Work. We direct attention to the notice to road work defaulters, by the board of County Commission. ers, on another column. The law authorizes the Board to call out all able bodied men to work the roads, and in case of refusal or neglect to impose and collect fines. We learn that it is the purpose of the Board to proceed to execute the law, and we therefore direct the attention of all interested to the matter. Fine Cigars.

Messrs. NASH & DULIN have laid on our table a bundle of Cigars, the very odor of which. brands, and gentlemen whose siesta is more successfully woodd or pleasurably succeeded by the inspiration of the finer Spanish weed, should give them a trial.

Grocertes.
Mr. F. W. KERCHNER, of Wilmington, advertises various articles in the Grocery line, in large quantities. His establishment is one of the most attractive places of that city, to all people there, when in pursuit of something to comfort the in-Adrian & Vollers.

These gentlemen keep up a large stock of Groceries, in great variety, and also keep up, meanwhile, a system of advertising by which the fact is made known to the world at large. The result is, they have a large and increasing business .-The attention of grocery buyers is directed to their advertisement.

Black Seed Oats.

Mr. J. D. MATHEUSON, of Augusta, Geo., of fers a cargo of the celebrated Black Seed Oats for sale, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns. The Augusta market now seems to be drawing nearer to the people of this sec tion of Carolina; and nearer still, as the noble body of workmen employed open up the way for the track of the Wilmington, Columbia and Au The Editor Re-Seated.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. J. D. CRA10 and his very efficient and worthy employee, Mr.

R. T. BARFIELD, for the very kind and liberal act involved in re-senting the editorial chairs of the Watchman. The work is handsomely done, in the style known as came-seated, and the editor again writes from an easy and comfortable chair to say nothing of the boautiful polish imparted, making the whole thing look as though it had just come, originally, from the hands of the skillful workman.

MR BARPIELD is prepared to do this kind o work at moderate charges. Send your bottomless chairs to him and have them made new again and encourage home industry.

Farniture.

Mr. J. E. SUATES advertises the "Sumter Furniture and Chair Ware Rooms," on another column, and we take pleasure in directing public attention thereto. He has recently made large additions to his stock, including, as will be seen, Sofas, Side Boards, Book Cases, Wardrobes, Bureaus, Washstands, Sitting and Rocking Chairs, all manner of sleeping comforts for children, be-sides Cottage Setts, &c. Mr. SUARRS is always courteous and polite and takes great pleasure in showing persons through his stock. The approach to his Furniture Rooms is now though flight of stairs from the front, Business Change at Mayesville. Notices which appear in this issue inform the public that the house of J. A. Mayes & Co., at Mayesville, has dissolved by the withdrawl of Mr. W. J. MULDROW, and that the business, in the same departments-Drugs and Medicines. Groceries and Provisions-will now be conducted by Dr. J. A. MATES. While expressing our high appreciation of the retiring partner, we extend renewed compliments and commendation to Dr. MAYES, who remains in position to serve his friends and the good people of the Mayesville section generally.

Wm. G. Whilden & Co. Visitors of the Great Fair at Charleston, the present week, should not fall to call at the cautiful establishment of Wn. G. Whilden & Co., at 29 Hayne Street and 225 King Street. Their array of Crockery, China and Glass ware at the former and of the finer grades of crockery and Silver and Plated Ware, Watches and Jewerly, and of all that beautiful addends of such a stock, at the latter, is worth going to see, even though you have no purchases to make.

The wholesale Department, which is on Hayne Street, is under the accomplished management o Mr. W. S. LANNEAU, and the Retail House, on King Street, under the very efficient and courteous cure of Mr. STEPHEN THOMAS, Jr.

Our readers will please refer to the advertise ments of their houses, elsewhere in our paper.

"The Universal Ayer." On my journeys over the continent—through Turkey, India, China, Japan, Peru, Chili, Paragusy, Brazil and Mexico, and the United States -in them all to some extent and in some to great extent, I have found the universal Ayer represented by his famliy medicines which are often held in fabulous esteem. Whether they win their marvelous reputation by their cures, I know not, but I know they have it to such a degree that it frequently gave me a distinguished impor tance to have come from the same country.
